that may be required by him, the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner may, after a notice to show cause to such person, based on any available information or material and to the best of his judgment, make an assessment of tax payable or refund due and also charge penalty and default surcharge.

(2) For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-section (1), the officer of Inland Revenue may also disallow or reduce a registered person input tax on goods if the registered person is unable, to provide invoice or other record or evidence of the transaction or circumstances giving rise to such claim.

(3) Where a best judgment assessment has been made due to default of clause (a) of sub-section (1) and the person files the return within sixty days of issuance of order under this section thereafter and pays the amount of tax payable along with default surcharge and penalty, the notice to show cause and the order of assessment shall abate.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), where the Federal Board of Revenue has specified conditions for the purpose of determination of minimum tax liability in respect of a person who is required to file return but who fails to file such return, the Officer of Inland Revenue shall determine such liability of the registered person in accordance thereof.

11E. Assessment of tax and recovery of tax not levied or short levied or erroneously refunded.- (1) Where due to any reason, including by way of collusion or a deliberate act, any tax or charge has not been levied or short levied or where the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner suspects on the basis of audit or otherwise that due to any reason a person has-

- (a) not paid or short paid due sales tax;
- (b) claimed input tax credit or refund which is not admissible; or
- (c) has obtained an amount of refund not due,

the officer of Inland Revenue after issuing a show cause notice to the person shall pass an order to determine and recover the amount of tax unpaid or short paid, inadmissible input tax or refund, or unlawful refund obtained and shall also impose penalty and default surcharge in accordance with sections 33 and 34.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the officer of Inland Revenue may also disallow input tax on goods or services if the taxpayer is unable, without reasonable cause, to provide a receipt, or invoice or other record or evidence of the transaction or circumstances giving rise to such claim.

(3) Where a tax or charge has not been levied under clause (a) of sub-section (1), the amount of tax shall be recovered as tax fraction of the value of supply.

11F. Failure to withhold sales tax.— Where any person, required to withhold sales tax under sub-section (7) of section 3, fails to withhold the tax or having withheld the tax fails to deposit the same in the prescribed manner, the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner shall after a notice to such person to show cause pass an order to determine and recover the amount in default and impose penalty and default surcharge under section 33 and 34.

11G. Limitation for assessment.— (1) The show cause notice under sections 11D to 11F shall be issued within five years, from the end of the financial year in which the relevant date falls.

(2) An order under sections 11D, 11E and 11F shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of show cause notice or within such extended period as the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded, in writing specify, provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed from ninety days:

Provided that any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings or the time taken through adjournment by the registered person not exceeding sixty days shall be excluded from the computation of the period specified in this sub-section.
